

Safeguarding Vulnerable People

Trauma-informed strategies to protect children & adults

Developed by Bond University, in partnership with Hetty Johnston AM, founder of Safeguarding People Australia and formerly Bravehearts, with over 30+ years' leadership in child safety.

“Empower your organisation to lead cultural change, reduce risk and save lives.”

– Hetty Johnston AM

Presented by

Endorsed by

Why take this course?

- Learn from Australia's most trusted safeguarding expert
- 100% online, self-paced in just ~15 hours
- Practical tools you can apply immediately
- Based on trauma-informed, evidence-based principles
- Designed for boards, execs, frontline staff & care professionals

Key outcomes

- Understand abuse risks and safeguarding
- Attain critical compliant safeguarding skills across all sectors
- Identify legal and regulatory obligations

Modules include

1. Introduction to Safeguarding-Governance Imperatives
2. Leadership Matters
3. Myths, Facts, & Stats of Abuse Against Vulnerable People
4. Preventing and Responding to Violence, Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation
5. Rights & Equity
6. Recruitment & Training
7. Disclosures, Incidents & Reporting
8. Online Risks & Situational Onsite & Offsite Risks

Want to enrol your whole team?

Email us for group pricing and bespoke packages:

info@learner.bond.edu.au

Scan to enrol or learn more